

KASILOF AREA MEMORIALS

Kasilof, Alaska

From: CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS AND AREA MEMORIALS IN ALASKA'S KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH – Published 2004 by Kenai Totem Tracers Genealogical Society. Used with permission.

The following persons lived in the Kasilof area. They were buried on private land or their ashes were scattered.

Johansen Cemetery

The Johansen Cemetery is located on Johansen Drive in Kasilof, Kenai Peninsula Borough, Alaska. The legal description is Ness-Johansen Subdivision, Block 2 Lot 3. The information was acquired in August 2002.

1. Anatole “Toni” Johansen

(Interred ashes)

2. Freda “Fritza” Johansen

(Interred ashes. Toni and Fritza were husband and wife.)

3. Gust Ness

1883 - 1937

(His remains are reported to be here and his headstone has been moved to the Kenai Cemetery.)

Osmar's Dock Cemetery

The Osmar's Dock Cemetery is located near Kasilof, Kenai Peninsula Borough, Alaska. It is off a gated cannery road at about mile 4.8 of Kalifornsky Beach Road. This information was provided in 1983.

1. Jacob R. Thimpson

Died July 2, 1891

(A fenced gravesite with rails.

The wooden headboard is about 36 inches tall with a rounded top.)

1. Lois A. Calvin

Oct 23, 1929 – Jun 29, 2003

(Lived in Kasilof

Ashes scattered over Pollard Lake)

2. Jasimne Weber

Died February 2003

(Killed in a car accident. Daughter of Karen Hermansen Weber of Anchorage. Ashes scattered at her grandfather Herman Hermansen's fishsite in Cohoe.)

3. Charles Dow “Chuck” Raymond

Died Aug 21, 2001

Age 87

(Ashes scattered on the family homestead in Kasilof.)

4. Helen L. Raymond

Apr 19, 1917 – Sep 9, 2003

(Ashes scattered with her husband
Chuck's ashes on the family homestead.)